Ukraine: draft resolution

Economic assistance to States affected by the implementation of the Security Council resolutions imposing sanctions on the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolutions 48/210 of 21 December 1993, 49/21 A of 2 December 1994, 50/58 E of 12 December 1995 and 51/30 A of 5 December 1996 on economic assistance to States affected by the implementation of the Security Council resolutions imposing sanctions against the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of resolution 51/30 A[1] and of the conclusions and recommendations contained therein,

1. Expresses concern at the persisting special economic problems confronting neighbouring and other States affected by the consequences of the severance of their economic relations with the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia during the period when the sanctions were in force and during the period following the lifting of the sanctions, taking into account their long-term adverse impact on the economies of those States;

[1] A/52/535.

2. Reaffirms the need for a continuing concerted response from the international community to deal in a more effective manner with the special economic problems of the affected States in view of the magnitude of the sanctions and their long-term effects;

3. Renews its invitation to all States and the relevant international organizations both within and outside the United Nations system, in particular the international financial institutions, to continue to take into consideration the special needs of the affected States in providing assistance to them during the period following the lifting of the sanctions;

4. Encourages the affected States of the region to continue the process of multilateral regional cooperation in such fields as cross-border infrastructure projects and the promotion of trade and investment, thus alleviating the adverse impact of the sanctions;

5. Urges the relevant international organizations to take appropriate steps in order to broaden access for suppliers from the affected countries and to ensure their active participation in the process of post-conflict reconstruction and rehabilitation of the former Yugoslavia;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-third session on the implementation of the present resolution.
